Ellison is 43 years old, and a Philadelphian by birth. His heavy face wore a dogged look as he leaned against the railing awaiting the Besorder's arrival. The ends of his black moustache were curled. He wore a black sack ouit with a low-cut waistcoat, and a white four-in-hand tie. He chatted a moment with hits counsel, Lawyer Brooke. Dr. W. J. O'Sul-Huan, and young Lawis Stuyyasant, While Ellison leaned against the rall a little woman, in mannish attire, with curly hair and snapted for a considerable time. Her sailor suit' with a showy shirt bosom, and a searf with a glittering diamond pin stuck in it, made her and she may be called as a witness by Ellison. Broker Henriques drove down to the General Sessions building accompanied by his married daughter. Mrs. Leila Olyvia Neame, and spent some time in consultation with Assistant District Attorneys Weilman and Osborne. Mr. Heariques looked ill. He has not yet recovered from the effects of Ellison's assault, which occurred on the evening of June 5, opposite the entrance to the Union League Club, and was the outcome of Mr. Heuriques's efforts to keep Ellison from visiting Mrs. Neame. Men who said at the time that they saw the assault said that Ellison teat the aged broker with a walking stick, knocked him down, and while he was down ground his bootheel into Henriques's face. Henriques drew a revolver, these men said, fired two shots into the air, and talled for the police. Ellison was arrested the pext day. He has been in prison ever since, being unable to secure the $15,000 ball fixed by Judge Cowling.

There was considerable trouble in getting invors after court opened at 11:20 o'clock. Nearly all the telesmen had read about the assault and had formed a prejudice against Ellison. "The answer to the objection," he said, "is that there is but one Court of General Sessions, and the jurors of any part thereof are eligible for service in any other part."

John W. Bellmire, a fish dealer, was challenged by the defence mainty because he was a reader of newspapers and might have a prejudies.

Newspaper readers ought to make good furors," commented the Recorder.

"It depends entirely upon how they read," retorted Lawyer Brooks.

Ellison laughed for the first time when Frank D. Reinan, who said he was once an actor, but newspaper articles. "because they are not modelled on the pages of the Holy Book." Lawyer Brooks soon knocked Reinan out.

Clerk Davenport announced that the panel of Part II. had also become exhausted, and Recorder Smyth, who had arranged to sit until 6's o'clock to fill out the jury box, reluctantly adjourned court with these jurors impressed for trial:

Local Banks to Lend Jersey City $300,000 Without Interest,

The local banks have come to the rescue of the Jersey City Board of Pinance and will furnish all the money necessary to meet the city's obligations, which mature on Oct. 1.
About two weeks ago the Board of Finance advertised for proposals for $700,000 of bonds, the principal and interest payable in gold. Only one bid was received, and that was for but $10,000 of the proposed issue.
The banks offered yesterday to loan the city $300,000 without interest. The banks interested are city depositories, and frequently held large balances belonging to the city, on which they do not pay interest. The loan will be repeald as soon as the Board of Finance succeeds in floating the bonds. nish all the money necessary to meet the Wall street is beginning to realize that the sterling exchange market is making uncom fortably rapid progress toward rates at which shipments of gold will be necessary to cover the drawings of foreign bankers. This was shown to-day by a general and, for the majority of stocks, a material decline in prices. The unmistakable tendency of the foreign exchange market has been given the importance

it merited in this column for a number of days past; but not until a further sharp advance was accored this morning did the speculative community seem to awaken to what it manifestly considers a serious menace o the stock market. For a short time after

DARING ROBBERT IN BUFFALO.

The Cash Brawer of the Western Union Branch Office Robbed by Two Men. BUFFALO, Sept. 25 .- A most daring robbery occurred here early this morning. Two men entered the branch office of the Western Union Telegraph Company at 537 Main street, near Genesee, and after beating the night manager. Henry Leipman, into insensibility, broke open the cash drawer and took the contents. amounting to about $25. The robbers escaped, and are still at liberty. The attack was carefully planned. The robbers first visited a number of saloons and rang for messenger boys until they had exhausted the supply. Then they visited the office, and finding the fleld clear, they presented revolvers at Leiuman's head and demanded the key to the cash drawer. Leiuman refused to give it up, and they beat him over the head until he was unconscious. They then covered his body with a piece of canvas and broke open the drawer with a jimmy, securing what booty it contained. Leipman was discovered some little time Loipman was discovered some little time later by a returning messenger boy, and re-vived. The police were quickly notified, but so far no arrests have been made. Two other attempts to rob branch offices were made later in the morning. It is supposed by the same men, but they were foiled.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS STOLEN. A Drum, Accordions, a Cornet, and Two Violins Among the Plunder,

Donald Batterson, a roung Scotchman, who was a sailor until recently, was held at the Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday on a charge of stealing two violins, valued at $150. from the store of C. H. Ditson & Co., at 807 Broadway. He was employed in the store as a Broadway. He was employed in the store as a laborer while the damage done by a recent fire was being repaired.

Detectives Lang and Sullivan of the West Thirtieth street police station visited his boarding house, at 440 West Forty-second street. In the guise of buyers of second-hand clothing. Batterson had no old clothes to sell thom but offered the two missing violins, as well as two accordions, two dozen cheap clarinets, a cornet, a snare drum, and a big bass drum, all of which had been stolen from Ditson & Co. How Batterson got away with these instruments is a mystery.

A CANADIAN EMBEZZLER

He Took Every Cent of the Trust Funds in BUFFALO, Sept, 25 .- John Leys of Toronto Queen's Counsel, and ex-member of the Ontario Legislature, who fled from that city last week to escape the consequences of his embezzlement of trust funds in his charge, was in Buffalo yesterday, and is now hiding near this city. Leys is 60 years of age, and for many years occupied a high position at the Canadian bar, being looked upon as an eminent citizen. He was legal adviser to the Freehold and Loan Association at a salary of $6,500 a year, and this, with his fees from other corporations, gave him an income of over $10,000. He managed several rich estates, and dealt much in realty during the boom of 1887-89. He appears to have embezzled every cent of trust funds in his charge. The Harsley estate, which represented $158,000, has entirely disappeared, and the Dick estate, representing $20,000, is also completely depleted. These amounts are supplemented by many others, bringing his defaleation, with many others, bringing his defalcation, with his debts, to $300,000 at least and probably much more.

Mr. Loys said to a reporter that every cent of his fortune had been lost through real estate speculation, and he had drawn upon the trust funds in his possession to recover himself, but they too were swallowed up in the same way. He was too old now, he said, to atone his wrongs and restore his good name, and nothing was left him but to get away from Canada and hide himself.

CIVIL WAR IN ARGENTINA. Gen, Pellegrini Thinks He Will Soon Suppress the Mevuit.

BUENOS AYRES, Sept. 25.-There was desultory fighting all day yesterday around Santa Fé. The rebels are gaining in numbers. A large number of the foreign colonists have thrown in their lot with the insurgents, and have been cordially welcomed by the enemies of the Government.

A more serious feature of the outlook, however, is the disaffection among the national troops. Descritons to the rebels are of frequent occurrence. In one instance a whole regiment has gone over to the insurgents, carrying their arms with them. These defections are causing the Government considerable are causing the Government considerable anxiety.

Gen. Pellegrini, who is in command of the Government troops, has been reënforced by national troops from the provinces of Buenos Ayres, Cordova, and Santiago. These additions to the Government forces have more than offset the desertions, and Gen. Pellegrini expresses himself as confident that with the augmented force at his command he will shortly suppress the revolt.

Deulal was made late this afternoon of the report of the assassination of Dr. Alem.

The Government has appointed Gen. Roca to the supreme command of the Argentine army.

OVERAWING THE GIN BURNERS. Lyachings Threatened by a Newspaper-

Many Bairs of Cotton Tled Up. NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 25.-The merchants farmers, and public generally have finally risen against the cotton-gin burners in North Louislana and propose to suppress them. The cotton-gin burners are the White Caps or regulators who have placarded the cotton gins with notices that if they touch any cotion before the price reaches 10 cents a pound the gins will be burned. These notices have been given mainly in Bienville, Claiborne, Lincoln. Desoto, and Sabine parishes. They have made a scare, have stopped the marketing of the cotton croi, and caused partial stagnation. Several meetings to protest against the gin burners have been called, and the Caubone Alliance Farmer declares that in case any gins are burned in that parish the incendiaries will be lynched. This attitude seems to have overawed the gin burners, and they have made no attempt to carry out their threats. They succeeded in tying up more than 100,000 bales of cotton in Louisiana alone, and in paralyzing business in one part of the State. Desoto, and Sabine parishes. They have made
